THROWBACK THURSDAY

NIGBOR FUR COAT CO.

Nigbor Furs had recently moved from Washington Street to 301 N. Adams St., across the street from the Hotel Northland, when the store was photographed in 1959. At the time, the business was Wisconsin's largest fur outlet. Founded in 1895, the company grew to have locations in Stevens Point, Wausau and Berlin.

The Don Geurts tailor shop, visible in the background, was at 230 Pine St. That section of the street was removed for construction of what is now Baylake City Center.
